EUROPEAN NEWS.

Preliminaries of the Peace Congress Progressing--The Representatives of the Powers Named--Russia's Withdrawal from Constantinople.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 3.—The Post, in a leader, says affairs are so far agreed upon, on the principle that it is estimated the Congress can conclude its labors in eight sittings, which, with necessary intervals for drafting minutes, would occupy about three weeks.

The Times confirms the report that Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury will go to the Congress.

The Daily News' Pera dispatch says boat loads of troops and material are arriving daily from Shumla.

The Times' Vienna dispatch says the Russians have arranged for mutual withdrawal from the vicinity of Constantinople, as far as England is concerned, but stipulates that the Turks must evacuate Shumla and Varna, and not advance beyond the lines of Tchaldana.

LONDON, June 3.—Several special dispatches from Constantinople says the Sultan failed to attend the mosque on Friday, whereby fear of an outbreak is believed to be implied. This Constantinople news serves to check the otherwise firm tendency of the London Stock Exchange.

LONDON, June 3.—It is said the Congress will be composed of the following powers: Prince Bismarck and Count Von Bulow, for Germany; Lords Beaconfield and Salisbury and Odo Russell, for Great Britain; Count Schouvaloff and M. Doutriel, Russian ambassador at Berlin, for Russia; Count Andrassy and Von Heymerle, for Austria; M. M. Waddington and De St. Vallier, for France; and Count Corti and Count De Lamay, for Italy. It is not known who will be the representatives of Turkey.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—SENATE.—Blaine submitted a resolution that the President of the United States be respectfully requested to communicate to the Senate, if not in his judgment incompatible with the public interest, all correspondence between our Government and the Government of her Britannic majesty, in regard to inviting other maritime powers to accede to the three rules prescribing the duty of neutral Governments, as set forth in the sixth article of its treaty of Washington. Agreed to.

Dorsey, of Arkansas, from the committee on Railroads, reported with amendment, in the nature of a substitute, the Johnston bill, supplementary to the act to incorporate the Texas Pacific Railroad Company. Placed on calendar.

Potter's committee is not in session. Documentary evidence shows that Stanly Matthews exerted himself very earnestly to satisfy Anderson. Among the plans to this end one was making Anderson naval officer; another making Ex-Representative Dr. Darrell Collector of Customs.

The following bills were introduced and referred:

By Hewitt, of Alabama, granting certain public lands in Alabama in aid of the Warrior and Tennessee rivers Railroad Company.

The general deficiency appropriation bill was reported from the Committee on Appropriation, and referred to the Committee of the Whole.

On motion of Culbertson, a bill was passed appropriating $750,000 for continuing the improvement of Galveston harbor.

SENATE.—Ferry gave notice that he would call up the Post Route Bill, Voorhees would call up the Repeal Resumption, and Spencer would call up the River and Harbor Bill.

The bill making supliments and assayers assistant treasurers of the United States, passed and goes to the President.

The bill allowing Territories one thousand stand of arms, with 50 rounds of ammunition to each gun, in addition to the present allowance, passed,

The Post Office and Post Roads bill came up. Hamlin's franking privilege amendment was rejected. The Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads having rejected an amendment providing for semi-monthly mail communication between the United States and Brazil—one line to ply between New York and Rio de Janiero, touching at St. Thomas, Para, Pernambuco and Bahia; the other line to ply between New Orleans and Rio de Janeiro, touching at Galveston and such other ports in the United States, the West Indies and Brazil, as the Postmaster General may deem necessary and expedient.

Pending the discussion of the bill the Senate went into executive session and adjourned.

Confirmations—John F. Hazelton, consul to Genoa; Chas. M. Murphy, consul to Moscow.

Train Robbers Captured.

By Telegraph to the News.

SALT LAKE, June 3.—A party of eleven men from Rawlins, W. T., captured a train of robbers and overhauled them forty-five miles north of St. Mary's station, with but little resistance. The only arms in possession of the robbers were revolvers, while the pursuers were armed with long range rifles. Three shots only were fired. The robbers at first denied their crime, but influenced by threats and applications of rope, one of them confessed and piloted the party to where the stolen money was concealed.

Mining Operations Resumed.

By Telegraph to the News.

POTTSVILLE, PA., June 3.—Despatches received here from the principal mining points in the coal region, indicate a general resumption of mining operations, all mines having started with a full force. The men are in unusually good spirits at the prospects of steady employment, and are much encouraged over the prospect of increased wages on July shipments.

Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Gen. R. C. Dunn succeeds Gen. Pelouge in the War Department.

News from the Indian frontier, as reported at the War Department to-day, is that Gen. Sheridan telegraphs that there is much alarm at Benton as to the situation, condition and intentions of Sitting Bull, who is thought ready to cross the frontier and again start upon the war path. From the upper Columbia news comes that the Nez Perces, under Chief Moses, are anxious to begin another war. The Pelouze Indians are in the same frame of mind, and itching for the war path.

The military and civil authorities are doing all they can to prevent an outbreak, and are making every preparation for the protection of settlers.

It is stated that Potter's Committee have summoned Minister Stoughton, from Russia, and Kasson, from Austria.

The Confederate Memorial Association will decorate the Confederate graves at Arlington, June 18th.

Rapier's commission as Collector at Montgomery, was issued to day.

The Secretary of the Interior sends a communication to the House that forty cents per hundred words for Government advertisements is not sufficient to secure first-class circulation.

ASSASSINATION.

Another Attempt on the Life of the German Emperor.

By Telegraph to the News.

BERLIN, June 3.—The condition of the Emperor continues satisfactory.

LONDON, June 3.—Accounts from Berlin say the effect of the news of another attempt on the life of the Emperor was astounding. The outburst of public feeling went as far beyond the manifestations made on the previous occasion as Nobeling's attempt exceeds that of Hoedel in seriousness of results. A vast crowd assembled around the palace and forced their way into the building, and dispersed only on receiving satisfactory news of the Emperor's condition, and a warning that their loyal manifestations might aggravate the sufferings from his wounds. The spot where the Emperor was shot is five minutes walk from the scene of Hoedel's attempt.

Dr. Nobeling, the assassin, came to Berlin a few weeks ago, from Halle. He hired a furnished room on the second floor of No. 18, Unter den Linden, from the window of which the shots were fired. Nobeling was formerly in the civil service of the Kingdom of Saxony; was a regular contributor to agricultural journals, and seems to have been in easy circumstances. He studied agriculture and finance at Halle and Leipsic.

It is reported from Berlin that Dr. Nobeling cannot recover from injuries inflicted on himself at the time of his arrest. It is said he had accomplices.

A despatch from Berlin to the Pall Mall Gazette says, that Dr. Nobeling's injuries are fatal.

BERLIN, June 3.—A strong escort of mounted police barely sufficed to protect Nobeling from the mob when going to the hospital. There was a rumor current that the assassin's name was Ludwig, and that he was a religious fanatic. This, however, seems based on the fact that a pile of the Ultramontane journal Germania was found in his room.

LONDON, June 3.—Later.—A Reuter's dispatch says, Nobeling confessed that he had cherished murderous designs for eight days, because he considered the Emperor's removal would be a public benefit. He declared that he favored socialism and had attended socialistic meetings. Some accounts say that Nobeling is supposed to be dying. It is known that a few days ago Nobeling unsuccessfully applied for government employment.

The Post's Berlin special states that 30 shots have been extracted from the body of the Emperor.

BERLIN, June 3.—An official bulletin issued from the Palace at 8.30 this morning reports the Emperor passed a quiet night. Pain from his wounds has been alleviated. The physicians consider his condition satisfactory.

LEXINGTON, June 3.

The Democratic Convention for this county meets in Lexington, Saturday, June 29th. A primary meeting will be held on the 22nd.

Judge Cox.

Charlotte Observer.

Over eighty cases on the civil docket, some of which have been standing for years, were disposed of. This is almost unprecedented in Mecklenburg county. Judge Cox has not only worked hard, but, by his rulings and dignified deportment on the bench, has won the high respect of the bar and of the people generally. Just before adjournment he thanked the bar and the officers of the court for their courtesy and kindness during the session, and subsequently the bar met and passed a resolution thanking His Honor for the patience and courtesy he has exhibited toward its members.

All About it.

The Baltimore Gazette.

What we wish to say is that Mr. Hayes or any other man in the Presidential chair in this country can be peaceably unseated whenever his offense is sufficient to cause proceedings to be instituted. When the committee has gathered all the testimony accessible the American people will judge of it, and make up their minds as to what is to be done about it.

What Shall the Harvest Be?

Rocky Mount Mail.

It remains for the Democrats to say what the result in August shall be. Let there be no discord in our ranks; let all put their (wheel to the shoulder) shoulder to the wheel, and with a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether, the last wiggle of the tail of the serpent, whose head has already been crushed, will lay stiff and still in death.

Capt. Eads' Mississippi river jetties are so far completely successful, and give assurance of a deep and safe outlet to the immense commerce of the Mississippi Valley.

TRAGEDY AT CHAPEL HILL.

A Drunkard's Wife the Victim--In a Drunken Brawl John Clemmons Accidentally Shoots His Wife--A Family of Children Bereaved.

Special Correspondence of the News.

CHAPEL HILL, June 2.

We had an awful tragedy in this place last night. John Clemmons, Milton Ward and Alphonso Davis, having gone into the country and bought some whiskey, came back to the house of Clemmons, bringing whiskey, oysters and crackers. This was between one and two o'clock last (Saturday) night. Mrs. Clemmons, it seems from the evidence of her daughters, told them not to come into her house to drink their whiskey, whereupon they went to the kitchen.

TERRIBLE RESULTS OF A DEBAUCH.

It seems that Mrs. Clemmons got hold of part of the whiskey and hid it to keep it from the men. After spending some time in the kitchen and finishing their oysters, Clemmons says he told them it was time to break up and go home. Ward said he was going into the house and go to bed. Clemmons forbade it, and told him to go off. He undertook to go into the house and pulled Clemmons off his step and struck him. He also spoke very insultingly to Clemmons. Clemmons at last got his gun down, and told Ward he would shoot him if he did not go off. It appears that the wife of Clemmons got up out of bed and tried to prevent her husband from shooting. In the dark (the lamp having been put out) the gun was discharged and Mrs. Clemmons was killed.

It seems that either Mrs. Clemmons or Mr. Ward pulled the muzzle of the gun down just as it fired. The whole load of shot passed through her thigh. Dr. Harris was sent for at once, and arrived in five to ten minutes, but the poor woman was already breathing her last.

ARREST AND TRIAL.

The three men, Clemmons, Ward and Davis, were arrested and kept in confinement, to await the inquest and the trial before the magistrate's court.

The coroner held an inquest to-day. Dr. Harris, at the request of the jury, exhibited the wound. The shot entered a little above the middle of the thigh, and, ranging a little downward, passed out on the back. The hole was a frightful one, some three inches long and half as wide. Dr. H. said the hole was in the direction of the femoral artery, and thinks there is no doubt that artery was severed. When he arrived the pulsations of the arteries and heart had entirely stopped, and no blood was running from the wound, though there was a large quantity on the ground where the woman was lying.

VERDICT AND DISCHARGE.

The verdict of the jury was "that deceased came to her death from the firing of a gun in the hands of John Clemmons." The three prisoners were then tried before magistrate J. H. Watson, on the charge of murder, and discharged. The magistrate was convinced, from the evidence, that the shooting of Mrs. Clemmons was accidental. Almost every one acquiesces in the verdict of the coroner's jury and the decision of the magistrate, but there is a very general regret that these men cannot be punished for their disgraceful conduct, although the shooting was believed to be entirely accidental.

A DRUNKARD'S WIFE AND CHILDREN.

The poor woman thus hurried into eternity, leaves eight children, one of them a suckling babe of 12 months. The mother was an industrious and very deserving woman, but the father is a worthless, drunken spendthrift. It is to be hoped that this terrible accident will do something to reform him.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

Campaign Levy on All Federal Office-Holders.

Copy of Letter sent an official in Raleigh.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COM.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27, 1878.

SIR:—This committee, charged with laboring for the success of the Republican cause in the coming campaign for the election of members of Congress, call with confidence, upon you, as a Republican, for such contribution in money as you may feel willing to make, hoping that it may not be less than $15. The Committee deem it proper in appealing to Republicans generally, to inform those who happen to be in Federal employ that there will be no objection in any official quarter to such voluntary contribution.

The importance of the pending struggle cannot easily be exaggerated. That the Senate is to be Democratic after the 4th of March, 1879, is very nearly a certainty.

In view of this, the election of a Democratic House of Representatives would precipitate upon the country dangerous agitations, which would inevitably add to present distresses. Foremost among their schemes, the opposition already announce their intention to attempt the revolutionary expulsion of the President from his office.

If, by the presentation of three candidates in 1880, the people should fail to choose, the House must elect—each State delegation casting one vote.

From what is now known, and with the growing dissensions in the camp of the enemy, the committee have good reason to enter upon their work with courage.

Please make prompt and favorable response to this letter, and remit at once, by draft or postal money order to "Sidney F. Austin, Esq., Treasurer, &c., German-American National Bank, Washington, D. C."

By order of the Committee,
GEO. C. GORHAM,
Secretary.

Hon. Walter L. Steele.

North Carolina has not a more faithful and able representative in the halls of the National Legislature, than the representative from this, the Sixth District. With a mind clear, quick and comprehensive, and richly stored with political history; with a power as a debater excelled by few, with an unfaltering devotion to his State and the South, and a high-toned personal and political integrity, he is the peer of any of them.

Smith and Winston.

Bertie County Resolutions.

That the appointment of the Hon. W. N. H. Smith to the Chief Justiceship of the State of North Carolina by His Excellency, Governor Vance, meets the most cordial and hearty approbation of the Democratic Conservative people of Bertie county; and that the delegates appointed by this meeting are hereby instructed to cast the vote of the county of Bertie for Hon. W. N. H. Smith, for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

That whilst we would not desire to forestall the public sentiment of the State in the selection of Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, yet it is with the greatest degree of pride and satisfaction that we must earnestly and sincerely point to our distinguished fellow-citizen and countryman, P. H. Winston, Esq., as a gentleman whose useful life has been passed amongst us, whose profound and varied legal learning, and whose great abilities as a lawyer and a scholar, added, alike, to a pure and spotless character, render him an entirely worthy and proper associate as one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the delegates appointed by this meeting are also instructed to vote for P. H. Winston, Esq., for one of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Commencement Week---Proceedings in Prospectu.

The attention of our people, who naturally take particular interest in all that pertains to our State University, is directed thereto this week. The Commencement exercises promise to be more than usually interesting. The examinations for admission to the University were held yesterday and continue to-day.

To-morrow morning Hon. Jos. A. Engelhard will deliver the address before the Literary Societies. He will be introduced by Mr. W. R. Slade, of Georgia, a student selected for this honor.

At the conclusion of this address, Hon. James Grant, of Davenport, Iowa, will deliver one before the Alumni Association.

In the evening there will be speeches by the following representatives of the two Literary Societies: Philanthropic; Messrs. R. W. Winston, J. S. Manning, and David Bell. Dialectic; Robert Strange, Jr., J. M. Leach, Jr., and E. B. Engelhard.

Thursday is Commencement Day, on which of course the greatest interest centres. Orations will be delivered by the following gentlemen of the Senior class: Messrs. A. Arrington, W. P. Cline, J. H. Faison, J. B. Lewis, J. M. Nicholson, George McCorkle, N. H. Street, C. W. Galloway, H. J. Watkins and E. J. Hill. Then will follow the announcement of Degrees. The diplomas will be awarded by His Excellency, Gov. Vance. The Orator's Medal will also be awarded.

Possibly the chief feature of the days, or rather of the nights, will be the grand balls. The spacious and elegant hall room, the finest in the State, will be filled by a throng of the gayest. Music will be rendered by the famous Salem Cornet Band, under Prof. Neave, and by string bands from our city and Wilmington.

The attendance this week, from all parts of the State, will be large, and the time will be spent in a manner both profitable and pleasant.

Prof. Hooper will have a re-union of the class of 1832. Among members of that class present, of prominence, there will be Hon. Giles Mebane, of Alamance, Hon. James Grant, of Davenport, Iowa, and others.

The Chief Marshall, Mr. Frank Wood, being compelled to leave the University, as he goes to Europe, an election to fill the thus vacated office, has resulted in the election of Mr. C. B. Aycock, to that position.

THE CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY.

A Radical Effort to Rescue it from Peril.

Special to the News.

CHAPEL HILL, June 3.

Col. H. B. Guthrie issued a call for a public meeting to take into consideration the distressed condition of the country. The crowd numbered just 35 whites and 10 blacks. Of the whites four fifths, at least, were Democrats who were attracted by curiosity, and the loudness of the Colonel's bugle voice.

A HARANGUE.

He made a sort of disordered harangue on the homestead decision of the Supreme Court. Said it was a Democratic measure, and would ruin the country, &c.

A DEMOLISHING REPLY.

Capt. Hutchings made a reply of about five minutes, and said more in that time than the Colonel had done in an hour. In this brief time he gave the Colonel some heavy blows in the short ribs, which the Colonel evidently felt, though he has brass enough to afford him a good coat of mail.

THE TAX ON DRUMMERS.

Charlotte Almost a Unit in Favor of $500.

Specially Reported for the News.

CHARLOTTE, June 3.

Judging from the interest manifested in the publication of the sentiments of the Raleigh merchants in regard to the proposition to tax drummers $500 for the privilege of selling goods by sample, recently, in the News, your correspondent concluded that the views and opinions of the merchants of Charlotte would be regarded with some attention, influencing as they do, a large portion of North Carolina's trade, and being vitally affected by the inroads of a certain class of "commercial tourists" into their territory of commercial transactions. With this idea in view, the leading business houses of the city were interviewed on the subject, with result summarized as follows:

QUESTION.

Are you in favor of or opposed to the proposition for the State to tax drummers $500, so as to prohibit them from doing business in the State, and what are your views on the subject?

ANSWERS.

Elias & Cohen, wholesale dry goods: We are in favor of taxing drummers $500, or any amount necessary to keep them out the State. Have no objection, particularly, to drummers selling to jobbing houses, but think those selling to cross-road shops are undermining the trade of the large towns, and overstocking the country with unsaleable goods.

Wilson & Burwell, druggists, advocate the measure on the ground that shoddy houses North send salesmen South to often sacrifice goods at ruinous prices to the trade, which a high license tax would prevent. Also that home merchants are taxed more heavily than they, and a heavy tax should be imposed to equalize the expenses of both. They are always glad to see representatives of first-class establishments.

Smith & Forbes, boots and shoes, favor the tax conditionally. If a clause is introduced in the bill appointing detectives to detect parties evading the tax, they think the measure will result beneficially; otherwise, the tax will not have the designed effect.

E. D. Latta & Bro., clothing and furnishing goods: "We are in favor of the tax, and would prefer paying a $500 license to sell goods by drumming in the State, rather than see the measure fail. The trade is being cut to pieces by travelling sale men of small concerns North, who flood the country with inferior goods, and could not afford to sell in our State were a heavy license required of them. It would be beneficial to the State to impose the same tax on home merchants, tending to place business on a more substantial basis.

P. Query, millinery and fancy goods: I am opposed to any tax. Can buy from drummers as cheaply as at the North, and regard them as a great convenience. Always glad to see them.

T. C. Smith, druggist, advocates the tax.

Pegram & Co., boots and shoes, are in favor of a $500 license, or larger, to the extent of proscription. Want to keep drummers out. They are ruining the business of the State.

Walter Brem, hardware, thinks the measure a good one.

W. Kaufman & Co., clothing and furnishing goods, favor a tax of $200—not more.

F. A. McNinch, cigar manufacturer, advocates $500 license.

W. & R. Tiddy, booksellers and paper manufacturers, favor the $500 tax, or any sufficiently great to convert the commercial traveller into a resident of some fixed locality.

Burwell & Springs, grocers, desire only sufficient license to equalize the taxation of both parties.

John T. Butler, jeweller, believes the proposition is a right one.

Dr. John H. McAden, druggist; $500 license any how; more if necessary.

L. R. Wriston & Co., druggists, are in favor of the tax but rather doubtful of its expediency.

H. T. Butler, hardware, advocates $500 tax.

Wittkowsky & Rintels, wholesale dry goods, regard the tax as a necessity to protect the jobbing trade of the State; as also damaging to the country, by flooding it with undesirable goods.

H. Morris & Bros., dry goods, are in favor of a $500 license.

J. M. Mendel & Co., cigar manufactures, favor a $500 tax.

Jas. Harty, china and crockery, is opposed to any tax.

Alexander Siegle & Co., dry goods, think the tax would be beneficial.

A. R. Nesbit and Bro., grocers, regard the tax as very necessary; and the heavier the better. Think that drummers damage State merchants, and do not assist the people.

Kyle & Hammond, hardware, favor the imposition of a $500 or prohibitory tax.

J. W. Hall & Co., grocers, think as heavy a license should be required as is necessary for prohibition.

Spencer & Allen, grocers, advocate the $500 tax, or any sufficiently large to abrogate from the drummers imposition all disposition to roam.

W. J. Black, groceries and liquors, favors tax if exclusive of home merchants.

Meyer & Ross, grocers, are in favor of a $500 license.

Elliott & Remley, liquor dealers, are opposed to the tax, on the ground that it must be imposed on North Carolina merchants as well as outside drummers.

Magill & Scott, grocers, advocate a $500 license tax.

T. H. Gaither, produce and wagons, regards the tax as a necessity.

W. W. Ward, produce, believes the tax would be beneficial.

J. C. Burroughs, plaster, phosphates, &c., is in favor of tax.

R. M. Miller & Sons, grocers, favor a tax of $500 and no more.

Brown & Co., hardware, favor the measure if the tax is to be imposed only on drummers from other States.

The heads of several other prominent houses being absent, their sentiments could not be obtained.

The majority of our business men, though so generally favoring the $500 license tax, are not opposed to drummers from large and responsible houses. The cross-road "feller" from Baltimore, and the retailer of suits and shirts, however, are their especial aversion, and the ones chiefly in mind when the measure is under discussion; so that, if the State were Charlotte, or vice versa, the success of the proposition would not long remain a matter of doubt.

Remorseless Time.

Philadelphia Times.

But time is a terrible leveler all of things, and in its inevitable whirl toward making them even it now points to a certain Democratic Senate and a probable Democratic House on the 4th of March next, to decide the question of the commission and inauguration of the successor to Hayes. The Democrats see their advantage and the Republicans appreciate the weapons they have placed in the hands of their enemies to overthrow them.

STATE AND FEDERAL JURISDICTION.

Lynch Young, of Polk, Remanded Back to State Court.

Asheville Citizen.

The State Judge, Schenck, never denied the power of a Federal Judge on habeas corpus to investigate the fact whether an act done by a Federal officer was committed "under color of his office," and if it was so found, to discharge the prisoner, or if not so found to remand the petitioner to the State Courts for trial. This he wished Judge Dick to do in Young's case, but his Honor took Young's exparte, and as now proved, false affidavits, as true, and removed it to the Federal court for trial. Justice has to be extorted from this Federal court as now constituted, and it is most grudgingly given to the State, but the exposures of the absurdity of Judge Dick's rulings and the powerful assaults made upon him by the public press one beginning to drive him from his arbitrary and unreasonable positions, and make him ashamed to trample further upon the constitutional liberties of the people.

Maj. Wm. A. Graham.

Lincolnton News.

It seems that our party has succeeded lately in putting forth its best men for office. What can we say of W. A. Graham, the honest and patriotic gentleman who was again nominated by the people of Lincoln and Catawba for the Senate? Nothing! He needs no eulogy. We will briefly refer to some of the public acts of the major.

Elected to the legislature in '74 by perhaps the most complimentary vote ever given in the State, having received every vote cast in Lincoln and Catawba counties, he served on the committees on finance and propositions and grievances, and as chairman of the committee on railroads. Through his instrumentality as member of the finance committee, the amount of property invested in joint stock companies—railroads, national banks, &c.—was increased from $590,000 to over $2,500,000, as returned for taxation, The law against railroads discriminating in freight tariffs and compelling railroads to ship all freight in five days after received, and the law prohibiting the deduction from the weight of baled cotton, were his work.

Maj. Graham is a farmer and fully identified with the farmer in every way. In the Senate he was regarded as the leader of their interests.

He was once assistant adjutant general of the State, and also served with distinction in the late war.

Hayes.

Charlotte Southern Home.

We have commended Mr. Hayes often, and we are sure the South feels kindly towards him for his policy, which is in such striking contrast with that of his predecessor, the cruel and tyrannical Grant. Yet the means by which he obtained his office are both revolutionary and illegal, and the precedent of a quiet acquiescence should not be established in this country, or republican institutions will soon cease to exist.

A Battlefield.

The Washington Post.

Mr. Hayes took the Secretary of War to Gettysburg with him, in order to show him a battlefield. The Secretary has absurdly insisted ever since he has been in the Cabinet, that battlefields are always floored over and fenced in. He got this notion, probably, from the amount of lumber Simon Cameron bought of MacVeagh, and had Don Cameron haul it for him over his railroad when he was Secretary of War.

Our Joe.

Reidsville Times.

Our young friend, Joe Caldwell, read the Declaration of Independence at the Charlotte celebration. There is more of the true newspaper man in Joe Caldwell than any man of his age we know in the State. He will win too.

Counties all over the State, both East and West, are declaring for Vance for U. S. Senator.

Advance of Science.

The advance of science within the last decade has been so truly wonderful that many are ready to exclaim that nothing is impossible. One of the greatest boons in this remarkable progress is the discovery of Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, for Hemorrhoids or Piles Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. Price $1 a box, sent post-paid. *

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

Sermons From our City Pulpits.

Though last Sabbath was somewhat forbidding in the forenoon, the congregations at our churches were, as a rule, large. We give a synopsis of the remarks of several of our divines:

PERSON STREET METHODIST.

The sermon in the morning was by the Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor. His discourse was upon the Holy Communion. At its conclusion the sacrament was administered.

In the evening the pastor took as his text: "Truly, this man was the Son of God." These are the words of a convicted man. But he had consummated his purpose, Jesus was dead. The centurion might have yielded the point before, but that would have deterred him from his purpose. Thus there are thousands of men who will not yield to honest convictions, because such convictions would thwart their evil designs. The conviction of this man was too late—the foul work was done. Many a man having made wreck of his body and soul, utters words of honest conviction when it is too late.

SALISBURY STREET BAPTIST.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., pastor, took as his morning text, Psalms LVI:-12, 13. The nature of vows was considered. These are characteristics of all religions. The first was made by Jacob. Some persons have scruples about making vows. He spoke of the Lord's supper as a renewal of Christian vows. The word sacrament, used to devote this sacred ceremony, is taken from the Latin sacramentum, which was the oath taken by the Roman soldiery.

In the evening his text was from Psalms CXIX :16. The subject was God's estimate of good society. Man is a social being, and it is a gracious arrangement that we are set in families. The best society is of course desirable, but does not necessarily consist of the rich or the talented. The difference between what is called good society by the world, and that deemed such by God, is often great. There is a great and growing disposition of the church to worldly conformity. This is a day of emasculated christianity, which has been rubbed of its power by the worldly inclination of its adherents.

EDENTON STREET METHODIST.

Rev. W. S. Black, pastor, delivered both the day's sermons, to large congregations. His text in the morning was "The sting of death is sin," etc. The discourse was a succinct dissertation on the effects of sin, and the blessings attending the victory over sin and eternal death, by Jesus Christ.

In the evening his text was "And that man perish not alone in his iniquity." This referred to a man who had disobeyed the behest of God. The idea was that the ungodly man perishes not alone, he will influence others. We cannot live to ourselves, but are exerting a power for either good or evil, all the time.

A Query.

Northern Paper.

The New York Times feelingly asks: "Will the South heed the appeal addressed to it by Postmaster-General Key, or the warning which, in a different form, proceeds from one of Georgia's most honored Representatives?" Scarcely. They credit Stephens with talking in his sleep, and Key with talking for pay.

Fish.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

There probably never was such a general run offish in our waters as has been this season. We are informed that there has been any quantity of herrings running up to the present date. And it is said the present run of rock fish is but seldom equaled.

Lumsden's "Old North State Cook Stove" still leads the market as the best and cheapest stove. Lumsden makes a specialty of repairing Sewing Machines of any pattern, Guns, Pistols, Locks, &c. All work warranted. He has just received a large lot of mocking and canary bird cages, fly traps, dish covers, fishing tackle, brooms, baskets, and every thing you want in the house furnishing line can be found at Lumsden's, cheaper than such goods were ever sold before. *

J. P. Gulley Offers.

new style silk veiling at 65c., worth $1.25; ladies 2 button kid gloves at 50cts.; great novelties in corsets at prices from 35cts. to $2.00; Dr. Warner's health corsets at 50cts. to $2.00. Especial attention is called to the grass corset at $1.50, for comfort. Straw matting at 20 and 25cts; also a nice line of dress goods, piques, &c., at bottom prices. I also call especial attention to the fact that I have the best ladies morocco shoe for $2.00 in the market, equal to Miles' or Ziegler's. Call and see his goods and examine prices. tf* of Misses' Sundowns, Flats, Sailor Hats, and the latest styles of Dress Hats, just received at Wm. Woollcott's new millinery store, corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets. *

Something Worth Attention.

Consigners of county produce should ship to A. C. Sanders & Co., because they are the only commission merchants in Raleigh. They do not buy at all on their own account, but make prompt returns, at the same prices they sell at, which are the highest this market affords. *

If you want to know when and how to make money in Stocks, by a new and safe plan, Address Lawrence & Co., 17 Broad St., N. Y. *w3t.

The Prevention of a Terrible Disaster.

No disorders, excepting the most deadly forms of lung disease, involve such a tremendous destruction of organic tissue as those which fasten upon the kidneys. Such maladies, when they become chronic—and none are so liable to assume that phase—completely wreck the system. To prevent this terrible disaster, recourse should be had upon the first manifestation of trouble, to Hostetter's Bitters, which experience has proved to be highly effective as a means of imparting tone and regularity to the organs of urination, as well as to the liver, stomach and bowels. Another beneficial result of this medicine, naturally consequent upon its diuretic action is the elimination from the blood of impurities which beget rheumatism, gout, dropsy, and other maladies. By increasing the activity of the kidneys, it augments the depurative efficiency of those organs, which are most important outlets for the escape of such impurities.

A Reliable Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which Physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to introduce the art of making wine from the Oporto Grape, which is now the best wine to be had, and has become a great favorite among the most fashionable in New York and Philadelphia. may 31-eod3t

THE Greensboro papers speak in the most flattering terms of the address of Mr. Robert T. Gray, of this city, delivered at the commencement of Greensboro Female College last week. It was the judgment of professors, auditors and students that Mr. Gray is a literary gentleman of a very high order of merit.

THE old Edgecombe Democracy assembles in Convention Wednesday. There was a time when the the Democracy of that grand old county was heard from and felt in the State, but that was before the blight of Radicalism and the plague of the carpet-bagger came upon the South and the country.

SOME of the "visiting statesmen," having spent several months abroad comparing the courts of Europe with the workings of Louisiana and Florida Returning Boards, are about returning home. Minister Stoughton, to the court of St. Petersburg, and Minister Kasson, to Austria, accept the invitation of Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, to visit Washington, and become the guests of his Investigating Committee.

Hon. John H. Wheeler.

This affectionate, venerable and distinguished son of North Carolina, than whom a truer heart never beat with every impulse of love for the old mother commonwealth, is in the city, on a pilgrimage to the State's grand Educational Institution at Chapel Hill to deliver an historical address.

Colonel Wheeler has in all lands and climes, and on every occasion, exalted the honor of his native State. Through good and evil report he has believed in North Carolina. His faith has been as that of a child in its parent, and when he shall come to lay down his life the State will have lost a son to whom she might well erect a lasting monument.

Journalists and public men recognize the immeasurable value of the services Mr. Wheeler did the State in the preparation of his history and his manual, and the want is often felt in newspaper offices for the continuance of the work from 1850 down to the present, and the matter has already been prepared, but financial difficulties are in the way of publication.

It is to be hoped that the venerable gentleman will pass a pleasant visit in the land of his birth, that he will be spared yet many years, and be permitted to return among us on many occasions.

Appealing to the Faithful.

There is printed on the first page of this paper a circular from the Republican headquarters, in Washington, making the first assessment on Federal officials for campaign purposes.

The assessment is at the rate of one per cent. lower than ever known before, but this is either in order to gradually lead the faithful back into the habit of paying party black-mail, which the spasmodic and inconsiderate honesty of Hayes broke up last year, or due altogether to that virtuous love on the part of the President for Civil Service Reform, which renders it peculiarly painful for him to give much himself; and one per cent. will let him off at five hundred dollars, instead of the five thousand it was at first said he would contribute.

This is altogether a virtuous document, worthy to have emanated from the highly moral mind of a New England politician of the puritanic persuasion. We "call upon you for such contribution in money as you may feel willing to make, hoping that it will not be less than $15."

In the circular printed from, the amount was written in with purple ink, showing that the tender request adjusts itself to the salary of the official. Particular, not to say delicate pains, are taken to gently "inform those who happen to be in Federal employ that there will be no objection in any official quarter to such voluntary contribution." But the matter assumes quite the air of business in these lines:—"Please make prompt and favorable response to this letter, and remit at once by draft or postal money order to Sidney F. Austin, Esq., German-American National Bank, Washington."

The appeal is that of a party which knows the certainty and whereof of its downfall, and it is to be commended for the candor of its statement forecasting the near future, wherein it says:—"That the Senate is to be Democratic after the 4th of March, 1879, is very nearly a certainty." And the situation is presented as peculiarly interesting in this wise:—"If, by the presentation of three candidates (for President) in 1880, the people should fail to choose, the House must elect—each State delegation casting one vote." The ghost of the Nationals here appears to disturb the dream of Radical empire.

These Congressional campaign managers establish their claim to the superlative in cool effrontery, in the following:—"The election of a Democratic House of Representatives would precipitate upon the country dangerous agitations, which would inevitably add to present distresses." Pray who precipitated the dangerous agitations out of which grew the disturbed condition of the country, culminating in the railroad riots of last year? Who are responsible for "present distresses" if not the Republican party? The cheek of a bronze statue ought to blush with shame before a Republican committee should refer to "dangerous agitations" or "present distresses" but to acknowledge their unworthiness and confess the crimes of the Republican party which have made for it a standing record of everlasting infamy and disgrace.

These gentlemen will have found after the returns of next November election the realization of their worst fears. Their efforts and the money ground out of their official slaves and party serfs will have all gone for naught. The next House of Representatives will be more Democratic than the present. The country will go Democratic again in 1880, and with both a Democratic Senate and House, rascally Radical returning boards will not be potent to stifle the voice and thwart the will of the people of the nation, as before.

Sad Affair at Chapel Hill.

In the columns of the News to-day is told a melancholy story from Chapel Hill. A wife, the chief and almost only dependence of a family of eight children, is shot and killed by her husband on a drunken debauch and carousal with two of his bosom cronies.

The only mitigating circumstance is that it was purely an accident so far as shooting the woman, but that is not much extenuation, for, having quarrelled with one of the men whom he had brought to his house to drink and spree, disturb, outrage and still further heap on the poor woman and children the misery of a drunkard's wife and family, he was attempting to shoot one of the men who had in their mutual drunk offended him. The shooting was reckless slaying, and ought to be punished.

Poor woman, she was struggling to escape the still deeper misfortune of being the wife of a murderer, and in the effort to save herself, children and husband that darkest stigma that may attach to a name, she lost her own life, a life worth a world full of the miserable besotted creatures, calling themselves men, who, with Clemmons, were at his house on Saturday night.

How long are the intelligent, virtuous people of North Carolina going to submit to this sort of thing. Are the women to be ever the victims of vicious drunken men of this sort? Is there no arm of the law to raise itself in defence of and for the protection of women and children thus circumstanced? It is a failure and a farce, the civilization that we boast, if the wisest and the best in a land like this supinely fold their arms and permit vice and crime to be thus liquor-fostered and stalk forth usurping the very majesty of the law.

There must be a change in North Carolina. Liquor thus indiscriminately in the hands of beastly men makes them demons. Every community so afflicted is a hell, and society had as well repair to bedlam. There must be arrayed an influence to control it. The total abstinence plan is a partial failure, at best, and against human rights and reason, and the process of licensing liquor dealing is a complete failure, so far as any practicable good is seen or felt on the morals of the populace. A law should be enacted requiring every man to take out a license before he is allowed to drink in a public place, or purchase liquor for any use. The seller made pecuniarily responsible for any damage or act to which the liquor he shall have sold may in any way contributes. And also attach a responsibility to officials for licensing either drinker or seller.

In this manner a traffic perfectly legitimate and proper in its sphere would be protected. Dealers would be rid of a class of customers they do not want, and liquor dealing take its place in the ranks of other respectable branches of business.

The Investigation.

The telegraph brings nothing special relating to proceedings of the Potter Committee at Washington. Ministers Stoughton and Kasson to the courts of St. Petersburg and Vienna, respectively, have been sent for to appear before the Committee. Poor fellows, they will hardly ever return to Europe wearing the uniforms of American Ambassadors. They doubtless deserve and are more likely to put on the penitentiary garb.

Radical threats are weaker; the crowing of the Republican cocks about Washington is not quite so game as it was. The New York Herald, which predicted such direful results to the country, and characterized the Potter resolution as a fatal mistake on the part of the Democratic party, puts down the revelations as more interesting than anticipated, and says the statement of Secretary Sherman respecting the letter alleged to have been written by him was evasive and unsatisfactory; that if he had never written such letter the denial would have been prompt and indignant, but it was no such thing.

Mr. Nordhof, the Washington correspondent, says the result of Saturday's proceedings was especially unwelcome to the Republicans, that they wince when the testimony begins to show they were not entitled to the electoral vote of Louisiana. He says the Democrats are quiet, not unduly elated, but confident.

The New York Times is conspicuously silent on the developments of Saturday.

Big, bold strokes win political as well as other victories. There has not been enough aggressiveness in the policy of the Democratic party. The Potter investigation will prove to have been the wisest and best step of the Democracy since the war.

The University.

The present is the most memorable of commencement weeks in North Carolina. It is the anniversary of the University at Chapel Hill, around which cling many of the dearest memories of some of the best men now living in the State, as it has been a cherished object of affection on the part of four generations of great and good North Carolinians.

The constitution adopted at Halifax 18th December, 1776, declared that a school or schools shall be established, "and all useful learning shall be duly encouraged and promoted in one or more universities." The University was incorporated in 1789. The Institution opened in 1795, and Wilmington, always first in every State enterprise, contributed the first student, in the person of Hinton James, who arrived February 12, 1795.

As great men as ever adorned the history of any country were trained and educated at Chapel Hill, and the University has always been an object of solicitude on the part of the State. For a time the Institution succumbed to the reverse results of the war, but having been re-established, and new blood infused in the enterprise, speedy and complete success awaits it. As the parent educational Institution of North Carolina, the University deserves the well-wishes and support alike of all.

The exercises of the week will be interesting, and the News will have full reports.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so like in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

ELECTION, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1ST.

Why is it.

The truths of science and progressive thought have always been compelled to batter down the bulwarks of prejudice and disbelief, or remain forever unknown. Why is that people are so reluctant to receive facts that relate directly to the phenomena of their own existence? Astronomers, upon discovering a star, assign it a place at once, and it is forever fixed. The rule by which a mathematical problem is once solved becomes forever an axiom; but no matter how clearly the principles which govern health and sickness be demonstrated, some refuse to believe. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines, which are now so generally used, and deservedly popular; were in their early days, very reluctantly received by the people. To-day, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has outrivalled the old-time sarsaparillas, his Pellets are in general use in place of the coarse, huge, drastic pills formerly so much employed, while the sales of his Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and his Favorite Prescription are enormous. Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous swellings and affections, a few bottles of his Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Debilitated females who have undergone all the tortures of caustic and the knife, and yet suffer with those peculiar dragging down sensations and weaknesses, can have guaranteed to them prompt and positive relief by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; while constipation and torpid liver, or "biliousness," are promptly relieved by the Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Sold by all druggists.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial orgrn of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

Mr. F. Morrell, Bangor, Me., July 2, 1873, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me incurable, suffering from Weakness, Disordered Stomach and Fever. The doctors gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles began to improve, and to-day feel perfectly well." Williams & Haywood, Ag'ts.

——Drummers' license have been issued to Heller, Fleishman & Co., Richmond, Va., and John Silvery & Co., Atlanta, Ga.

——A party of our city belles, under charge of Hon. J. A. Englehard, left for Chapel Hill yesterday morning. They will make the trip in coaches, going through the country; an enjoyable way of traveling.

——Our market is now kept in admirable order. The stalls for the sale of both fish and meats are free from the smells which formerly made the place almost a nuisance. We learn that many of our ladies now regularly make their purchases in person, which is very convenient,

Serious and Probably Fatal Accident.

On Saturday afternoon last, Mr. Caswell G. O'Neal, who lives near the Roger's X Roads, some ten miles from our city, left his his house with one of his servant men, to see Mr. Bowen Rogers. When near Beaver Dam branch, in going down a hill the holding-back strap broke and the buggy ran on the horse, who immediately commenced to run and kick, and soon capsized the buggy, throwing Mr. O'Neal and the negro man violently to the ground. The latter sustained no injury, but Mr. O'Neal fell on some rock and was most seriously injured on the head and face, as well as internally, and has been in a critical condition ever since. Dr. J. R. Flemming, of Rolesville, is attending him. Mr. O'Neal is one of the most worthy citizens of our county, and we regret to learn of this serious accident.

Thief Nabbed.

Sunday last a negro boy named Tom Green endeavored to sell to Geo. Lane, who is superintendent of a colored Sunday school at the old Fair Grounds, a lot of books and papers. These were examined by Lane, who is a deputy sheriff, and found to be the property of the Grange. The boy, after some inquiries, acknowledged that the books &c., came from the house occupied by the Grange, on East Martin street. The robbery was effected on Saturday night, the thief opening the unfastened shutters, raising the window, and taking out a tin box full of papers, &c. Lane brought in the thief, who lies in the guard house, and will be tried to-day at 10 o'clock.

Supreme Court.

This tribunal met on yesterday at 10 o'clock. Present, Chief Justice Smith and Associate Justices Reade, Rodman and Faircloth.

The Court was engaged during the day in examining applicants to practice law—34 in number.

Judge James Grant, of Davenport, Iowa, and formerly of Halifax county, in this State, was, on motion, yesterday in the Supreme Court, admitted to practice law in the several courts of this State.

Magistrate's Court.

Justice Magnin on yesterday tried the case of D. B. Sorrell, Lyun Allen and Alphonso Haynes, three white youths, who were arrested on Saturday night, charged with the shooting of the negro boy John Lockhart. The trial gave no evidence to show that these parties did the shooting, but it was proved that they made the assault. The defendants were represented by counsel. After carefully hearing the case the Justice required each of the three to give a bond of $200 for appearance at the next term of Criminal Court.

Mayor's Court.

Elijah Outlaw and his wife, colored, were arrested on a charge of fighting. On appearing before His Honor, the parties stated the affair was a mere family jar. So the offenders were dismissed after being severely reprimanded for their conduct.

Several cases of Saturday night drunks were remanded to the guard house, there to abide for the usual 12 hours.

The Temperance Movement.

As announced, Mr. Jonah Boughton, the temperance apostle, delivered an address at Tucker Hall last Sunday afternoon. The audience filled the building. The association Mr. Boughton represents is styled the "World's Christian Temperance Union." The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. M. Broughton. The services were begun by singing a hymn, after which the Scriptural narrative of the return of the prodigal son was read by Mr. Boughton. A prayer by Rev. Mr. Branson followed, after which the speaker was introduced and began his remarks. These were in the main a narrative of his experiences as a former victim to strong drink. His remarks were to the point, illustrated by numerous anecdotes. He laid much stress on on the fact that a man cannot save himself by his own efforts. Nothing but God's help can place a man properly on his feet again.

The words of the speaker were heard with attention. At the conclusion of the lecture the audience were requested to come to the front and sign a pledge. The following is the form of this: "I, the undersigned do pledge my word and honor, God being my helper, to abstain from the use and discountenance the sale of all intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and that I will by all honorable means encourage others to do the same."

This pledge was signed by 105 persons, each of whom was decorated with a bit of red ribbon.

Last evening the hall was again crowded to hear the second lecture on intemperance. Mr. S. L. Riddle presided as Chairman. A choir of selected vocalists rendered beautiful selections in an incomparable manner. The Chairman called upon Rev. Mr. Branson for a speech. That gentleman, in response, made appropriate remarks in his usual strikingly forcible style, upon the object of the meetings. The contributions of the audience were solicited. During the progress of the collection a very amusing and new anecdote in regard to some distressed shipwrecked sailors, who could do naught religious save take up a collection, was narrated by Mr. Boughton. He went on to speak of the design of the meetings, illustrating the cost of drinking. His style of delivery and his gestures smack slightly of the stage. His anecdotal powers are used with some effect.

He concluded by saying that he would narrate this evening a blood-curdling experience of his life, and give also an illustration of delirium tremens. He said the charge for admission would be ten cents. The choir then sang, and signers to the pledge, to the number of over 100, came forward, many ladies among them.

Robbery.

Some thief, minus the fear of God, man or a "judgment to come," entered the house of Solomon Wiggins Esq., near Kelvin Grove P. O. Wake county, on last Friday evening, and breaking open a trunk, rifled therefrom about $30 in silver and a $20 gold piece—while Mr. W., with his hands, was on the farm chopping cotton. Only three weeks since Mr. Wiggins was bereft of his estimable wife, leaving him at an advanced age entirely alone. Ever first in dispensing charity, even in excess of many who have a larger income, it seems akin to robbing the grave. He recollects no mark on the money. The piece of gold was coined in 1866.
